CALL FOR APPLICANTS

What is MNLEND? A year-long interdisciplinary leadership program on evidence-based research and practices to train new leaders to help improve access and equity for children and young adults with neurodevelopmental disabilities (NDDs), such as autism and other related disabilities.

Who should apply? UMN-TC graduate students, post doctorates, outside community professionals, family members, and self-advocates who demonstrate leadership potential and hands-on experience in NDDs.

People from underrepresented communities are strongly encouraged to apply.

Over 16 disciplines are represented:

More information & online application at:
http://lend.umn.edu

The University of Minnesota Leadership Education in Neurodevelopmental and related Disabilities (MNLEND) Program is supported by a grant from the U.S. Maternal and Child Health Bureau, Grant 2 T73MC12835-08-00 and from the University of Minnesota’s Institute on Community Integration at The College of Education and Human Development.

Contact:
Rebecca Dosc Brown
MN LEND Program Coordinator
dosch018@umn.edu

Benefits:
- Stipend
- National networking and travel opportunities
- Lifelong interdisciplinary connections
- Developed leadership to improve access and equity for all children with NDDs and their families